THE BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL EXCURSION.

Seven Hundred Passengers Aboard.

A GLORIOUS DAY FOR THE CHILDREN.

A General Good Time For All.

LOCKVILLE.

THE STEAMBOAT EXCURSION.

Tuesday morning at 5½ o'clock the loud peals of the Baptist Church bell announced the hour of assembly of the Sunday School, to join in the regular Annual Railroad Excursion.

Soon every street leading to the Church was thronged with light and happy hearts, and the joys of the coming day brightly beaming from the countenances of all both, young and old.

The procession was formed at the Church and proceeded by the Citizens Cornet Band of this city, marched to the Railroad, where nine coaches, furnished by Capt. A. B. Andrews, the gentlemanly Superintendent of the Raleigh & Augusta Air Line Railroad awaited the excursionists.

The embarkation accomplished, the long train was soon in motion, and speeding its way through the city environs. As the city boundary line was passed, the boys joined in a general shout of joy and gladness, indicating that at this moment commenced the day's festivities.

Cary was the first station reached, here we received one or two additional passengers, and crossing the N. C. R. R., proceeded rapidly on to Apex, which point was reached in due time. This is the highest point on the Railroad, and has the best water of any station. Our water-coolers were replenished, also the engine tank. The next station in order was Lashlie's, so named from the country cross-roads, and not in honor of the notoriously infamous denizen, Harry Lashley, who lives at the place. At this point, the excursionists were detained about ten minutes awaiting the arrival of the regular mail and passenger train. Mr. Harton, who owns a magnificent orchard adjoining the railroad, brought to the train several buckets of ripe, mellow apples and generously distributed them among the children. After the passage of the mail train we were soon bounding on our way. The large and elegant engine "W. R. Cox" as if annoyed with the impatience of delay, increased its former rapid pace and almost as swift as the winds, we passed the station, Merry Oaks, without halting, and soon reached Haywoods, a beautiful village a short distance to the left of the railroad track, but obscured from view by the full foliage of its ancient oaks. After watering and wooding, the "Gen. Cox" passed on and safely over the Haw river bridge, a very magnificent structure, which seems to have been erected upon the same plan as the Tar river bridge on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad.

The point of destination, Lockville, was made in a few moments, where the party landed after one of the most pleasant and agreeable trips ever experienced by an Excursion party of such large numbers. Not the slightest incident occurred during the passage to mar the happiness of the occasion.

The Superintendent of the School, Col. J. M. Heck, had thoroughly organized the Excursion. The various classes were assigned to certain cars, every officer, teacher, scholars, old and young, knew their positions, and though but little disposition was exhibited by the boys to be restless, yet the Marshals were stationed on the platforms and no children permitted to stand thereon or cross. A front car was appropriated to the use of the Band, who enlivened the fleeting hours with soft, silvery and harmonious strains of music enchanting to the ear and refreshing to the mind. This Band, recently organized in this city, and consequently of short practice, bids fair to be the best Band in the State at an early day. We noticed in its ranks some of the best native musicians we have ever known.

Arriving at Lockville, the party disembarked opposite a beautiful grove of oaks on a hill side, where rustic seats and dining tables were already prepared for their accommodation. Permission was given the larger boys and girls to roam at large and enjoy themselves as they wished. Strolling parties were formed to explore the banks of Deep river and the canal. Others strolled through fields and forests, some played at ten pins, some at love making, some fishing—but we came to see something ourself, and did not care or desire to know what others were at.

Lockville is noted for its tremendous water power, the fall being nearly sixty feet, and as having the highest canal lock in the United States,

Boats are raised here from the river into canal the above, a distance of 47 feet. As our readers have recently seen in this column a full description of "Lockville and its Surroundings" we do not propose at this time to speak of its manufacturing mills, the rich beds of iron ore, that lie in every hill, the immense coal fields near, and the extensive preparations that are being made for the successful working of the same—but we have Sunday School excursion and pic nic on the brain and therefore will return to the central point, the grove, where the tables were spread. At 11½ o'clock the tables groaning under the heavy weight of everything that was good to eat, were in readiness, and a few minutes before 12 o'clock the school and visitors were assembled by Col. Heck, and the dinner heartily enjoyed by all.

The Committee desires us to return the thanks of the party to Mr. Wilkie, of Haywood, for a present of a large barrel of apples, which added much to the appearance of the tables. After dinner a party of about two hundred, of which we were a part, repaired to the steamboat landing where the staunch and elegant little steamer, Geo. J. Lobbell, lay in waiting. We were most courteously received by the polite and gentlemanly Commander Capt. L. R. Exline, who seemed indefatigable in his endeavors to contribute to the pleasure, comfort and convenience of his guests. The trip down the river was performed under the most disadvantageous circumstances. The river was at its very lowest point; the load on the boat was unusually large, and the day was excessively warm. Yet Capt. Exline so dexterously managed his tight little craft that all were highly pleased and delighted with the steamboat excursion, which was from Lockville to the junction of the Haw and Deep where is formed the Cape Fear.

The evening was spent in rambling the groves, visiting the mills, and the old Lockville Hotel, a wooden building of almost unknown antiquity, and noted as the house that Cornwallis, the British General in Chief had his Headquarters during the progress of his campaign in North Carolina. It was at this place he received the first of the series of reverses that resulted in his defeat at Yorktown, and his final surrender. Only a short time since, the tree under which his Aid-de-Camp was shot while watching the advance of the Americans, was cut down, and we were told by the proprietor of the farm, Col Heck, that he never regretted anything as much as when his overseer informed him of the error committed by one of the hands in cutting it.

At 5 o'clock the large uumber of scholars and visitors re-embarked on the train and at 5½ o'clock were in motion, homeward bound. The return trip was equally as pleasant as the one in the morning and made in quicker time, arriving at the starting point at 7 o'clock precisely. The pleasures of this well organized and well conducted excursion will long be remembered by those whose good fortune it was to participate, To Colonel J. M. Heck, the Superintendent, are we specially indebted for acts of kindness and courtesies extended us.

We shall always revert with feelings of pleasure to the substantial reception extended us by Capt. L. R. Exline. May his shadow never grow less, and may he soon become happy in the possession of the heart and hand of some young lady who is worthy of being the help mate of so worthy a man.

The entire excursion, school, visitors and all greatly acknowledge their indebtedness to Capt. Coley the obliging and handsome young conductor of the train who contributed much in the exercise of his duties, to the general pleasure of the occasion.

The excursionists also return their warm and hearty thanks to the citizens of Lockville and vicinity, Haywood, Pittsboro, and a few from Fayetteville, for the kind and welcome reception of the party on its arrival at Lockville.

We have also, in connection with this report, a chapter of "Incidents" which we are unable to get in to-day—but we desire it to be understood that they are written and unchangeable.

NORTH CAROLINA BEAUTY AT THE SEASIDE.—From a private letter received from a friend in Norfolk, we are permitted to use the following extract, from which it will be seen that North Carolina beauty carried off the palm at the late Grand Ball at Veu de L'Eau on the 20th ult:

The grand ball at our new watering place, "Veu de L'Eau" on the 20th ult., was of theone grandest affai that ever came off in the Southern country.

It is said that three thousand persons were present. The array of beautiful and elegantly dressed, ladies that graced the occasion with their presence, was unequalled in the history of Virginia. The attire of one lady cost two thousand dollars, "which amount does not include the diamonds and jewelry that ornamented her person."

The young lady which by common acclaim was pronounced the belle of the ball, was from your State, the charming Miss L. P. of E. City, N. C. She was exquisitely attired in a white tarlton with train, low neck and short sleeves, which was handsomely trimmed and arranged, and of her it is not invidious to say, that her magnificent figure, and splendid appearance together with her beauty, intellect, grace and sweet disposition, won the admiration of all.

SANFORD ITEMS.—Our (long leaf) correspondent under date of yesterday, gives us the following news items:

The weather is intensely hot—no relief for the weary, even in the shade.

A regular tri weekly mail and stage line will be opened from this point to Carthage, in a few days. The days of leaving this point have not as yet been announced. By this conveniently arranged line, travelers will have an opportunity of viewing the best mineral sections in the State, the route of travel being immediately through it.

Step by step, our little town progresses, and there is no doubt but that we are on the high road to a flourishing city.

Quite an amusing incident occurred a few evenings since at our village Church. An old neighbor of ours, who toiled through the day plowing up his potatoes, attended church at night and took his seat as usual in the amen corner, immediately under the stand, but suffering from the result of honest toil, soon fell into a sound slumber. This being something of a usual character in all well regulated churches, no notice was taken of the slumberer, but sometimes we "sleep perchance to dream," and perchance our neighbor did dream, a fact that was evident, when in the midst of the Minister's discourse he cries out in a loud tone, "keep your feet off them taters, you little devils, you."

FROM WILSON.—We have received from an esteemed friend at Wilson, N. C., a highly interesting leiter, giving an account of the eventful week just passed in that enterprising lettle town. The letter will appear in our next.

In a private note our correspondent says:

"Miss Jeanie Patterson gave one of her interesting readings last night to a large audience—very large considering the very short notice given of her coming. The young people called on her, and I believe made her stay pleasant."

JUDGE WATTS PORTRAYED.—A poetical correspondent gets off the following on Judge Watts:—

Not one of Watt's hymns; but a hymn on one Watts, commonly known as "Greasy Sam," is being, therefore,

A HYMN ON A SAM.

BY SAMT.

On the exalted seat of a once honored bench,
We now see some very dark blots;
Where once sat a Bullen we now see up a Watts,
And his name is SAM. WASHINGTON WATTS.

If money intrusty the rest of all quit,
And Watts commits Cullen for stealing a hair;
Stealing five thousand dollars should commit to the devil,
This Radical Judge Greasy Sam.

On the bench few days we've by lawyers, the said,
Though of Rebels it seems we have lots,
Black and gray spotted, but none of them RED,
And one is called Greasy Sam Watts.

Like the wind, he is changeable, often called "raw,"
For a Judge he's more wind than ever we saw,
And, like necessity, he knows no law,
Judge Samuel Washington Watts.

As fools rush in where angels fear to tread,
He dared to be a Judge to earn his bread,
And got this title on his empty head,
Judge Samuel Washington Watts.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Wm. H. Anderson a sober, steady, industrious and well behaved colored man, died suddenly at his home in the Western Ward Tuesday night about 12 o'clock. He was the body servant of Gov. Vance during his occupancy of the Governor's Mansion in this city, and was quite a favorite with that gentleman. It is supposed his death was caused by a burn received a few months since while on a tour in the Mountains with Prof. Kerr, the State Geologist, as he has been subject to fits or spasms since the occurrence of the accident.

GOOD NEWS FOR THE AFFLICTED.—Raleigh has now a Canine physician, whom it is said administers to all the ills that purps are heir to with wonderful success. This is good news to the many "Jeff. Davis'," Zeb. Vance's," "Joe Turner's," "Tige's," "Ponto's" and other canines that have been suffering from a heretofore incurable malady in this city.

BIG TIME AT DOWD'S MILLS TO-DAY.—We understand that there will be a large turnout at Dr. C. F. Dowd's Mills, situated in Chatham county. The meeting will be addressed by Hon. Sion H. Rogers, our candidate for Congress, and W. W. Jones, Esq., of this city. Able and effective speeches may be expected.

NO PAPER TO-MORROW.—In accordance with the time honored custom of observing the 4th as a general holiday, no paper will be issued from this office to-morrow.

The Missouri Democrats Recommend no Nominations.

ST. LOUIS, July 3.

At a meeting this evening of a number of leading Missouri delegetion to the Baltimore Convention, it was unanimously agreed that the delegates should adhere to no nomination, this policy being considered the most efficient mode of authorizing the election of Greeley and Brown. The general opinion seemed to be that while the Convention should give no uncertain sound as to its preference for Greeley over Grant, simple recommendation would be of more real service than any formal adoption of the former as Democratic candidate.

Burning of the Fannie and Killing of Peralta confirmed.

HAVANA, July 3.

The burning of the Fannie and the killing of Peralta who commanded the expedition and captured stores which she landed is confirmed. It is supposed that a part of the Fannie's cargo was transfered to two sloops and landed on north coast. The fate of Fannie's crew is unknown but it is supposed they joined fillibusters. It is asserted, however, that they took their boats for Jamaica.

MISCELLANEOUS DISPATCHES.

Washington Affairs.

WASHINGTON, July 3.

Colonel McKenzie, commanding at camp Supply, informs the War Department that the Kiowas are again on the war path in the direction of Port Sill.

General Pope says he does not fear general hostilities.

Colonel McKenzie, commanding the 4th cavalry, in a letter dated Fort Richardson, Texas, June 4, says that Indian depredations are becoming alarmingly frequent, and that the depredators are Kiowas and Comanches, who are fed daily by the Indian Agent on the Canadian River.

In endorsing this communication Lt. General Sheridan says all the Indians on the reservation are engaged in this bad work, that he sees no way to stop their outrages except by the action of the military at Fort Sill and Camp Supply. He requests permission to go in and wipe out the hostile Indians and save the idea of trying to protect the long line of Northern Texas from Indians who are supplied with food, arms and ammunition, as the reservation seems to him ridiculous.

Secretary Boutwell will visit North Carolina about the 15th and make two speeches in support of the Republican State ticket.

Secretary Boutwell has written the following letter to a tobacco dealer in New York:

SIR—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of a letter signed by yourself and other persons, engaged in the manufacture of tobacco, dated July 1st, in which you ask me to revise the decision of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, concerning the storage of manufactured tobacco in warehouses, after the 6th of June and previous to 1st of July. I have examined the question and am of opinion that the action of the Commissioner is required by the language employed and that the ruling accords with the purpose of the committees of the two Houses charged with the preparation and management of the bill. Tobacco moving under transportation ends on the 6th day of June when the act was signed by the President is not necessarily subject to the old rate of duty as by the ruling of the Commissioner, it may be returned to the place of manufacture or held by the collector of the district to which the consignment was made until the 1st of July, and there given up to the owner or consignee upon payment of duty at the rate fixed by the ruling of the Commissioner, appears to me to relieve persons engaged in trade of all ground for complaint, except what may arise from the general purpose of the law, which is manifest in abolishing the warehouse system.

Very Respectfully,
GEO S. BOUTWELL,
Secretary.

New York Affairs.

NEW YORK, July 3.

The court room was crowded, and hundreds who turned out to attend the Stokes trial fail to gain admittance.

The Archbishop of Madrid is dead.

Salt Lake despatches of last night state that the reports of recent murder by the Indians have been confirmed and at a council held there yesterday, consisting of Assistant Secretary Interior Cowan, Gov. Woods, Gen. Morrow, Indian Agent Dodge and several other officers, it was resolved Dodge should immediately proceed to the southern part of the territory and call a council of Indian Chiefs of the various tribes, and instruct them to return to their reservations. In case they decline, he will inform them that the Government will take prompt measures to rigorously move against them. Strong detachments of cavalry will be sent South at once.

Weather Report.

WASHINGTON, July 3.

The barometer will probably continue slowly to fall, and especially in New York and New England. Southwest winds will continue from Ohio to New England. Southerly winds without material increase of temperature, but with close, moist atmosphere and light local storms will be experienced throughout the Atlantic States on Thursday.

Liberal Republican Convention.

DAVENPORT, IOWA, July 3.

A call is published here to-day for a liberal Convention to be held at Desmoines on the 1st of August for nominating an electoral ticket and State ticket, and to concoct such measures as may be deemed wise for the consolidating of all the elements of opposition to the present administration.

THE HISTORY OF A NATIONAL REMEDY.—Here is the history of the most celebrated tonic of the age in a nutshell. In 1860, it was announced that a certain combination of vegetable ingredients, with a pure diffusive stimulant, was working wonders in the cure of chronic dyspepsia, nervous debility, liver complaint, periodical fevers, rheumatism and constitutional weakness. The unpretending name given to the specific was PLANTATION BITTERS. The statement attracted the attention of invalids everywhere. The new remedy received a fair trial, and the results more than confirmed all that had been said in its praise. Thenceforward it was a grand success. The business columns of the press spread the glorious news far and wide, and the martyrs to indigestion, biliousness, physical prostration and premature decay, as if by common consent, sought relief from the new vegetable restorative. They found what they sought. From that time to the present the increase in the demand for Plantation Bitters has been one of the most striking events in this age.

GREAT MASS MEETING IN RALEIGH.

We are requested to state that there will be a grand mass meeting in Raleigh, on Tuesday, July the 16th, of Conservatives, Democrats and Liberal Republicans, which will be addressed by distinguished speakers from all parts of the country.

Hon. Carl Schurz, Senator Trumbull, Gen. Francis P. Blair, Gov. Walker, of Virginia, and other eminent orators have been invited, and are expected to be present.

It is desired to make this affair one of the most imposing demonstrations that has ever been held in North Carolina.

BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION—ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS TO BE SPENT IN NORTH CAROLINA.

Hon. John Pool, Radical United States Senator from this State, has his headquarters at the National Hotel in this city. It is said that he will remain here until after the August election. It is also said that he has one hundred thousand dollars, sent out by Northern Radicals to use for the purpose of carrying the State for Caldwell. This money has been raised by assessments on the salaries of Radical officials and by contributions from Radical capitalists who feel the great importance that attaches to the August election in North Carolina.

To show what efforts are being made to influence the result in this State, we copy the following telegram from the New York Tribune.

EFFORTS OF THE ADMINISTRATION TO CARRY THE ELECTION.

WASHINGTON, June 30.

The Grant party are devoting all the energy which they possess and all the great resources of the Administration to the campaign in North Carolina. Everything is subordinated to that object, and every device which it is supposed can in any way assist to secure the desired end, is resorted to. As that is the State in which the election takes place first, it is deemed of the highest importance to carry it in the interest of the Grant party. It is believed that the moral effect in favor of Grant, of a success in North Carolina, would be very great. Money is used with a lavish hand. It is reported, on undoubted authority, that within a few days past a prominent supporter of Grant, supposed to be ex-Senator Abbott, went to New York to obtain money to be used in the canvass; and that he obtained $25,000, and boasted of it in this city. During the remaining month, before the election, speakers and money without limit will be sent to the State, to carry it for the Grant party."

Gen. Abbott is now in this city at the National Hotel, and the $25,000 he boasted of will doubtless be distributed over the State for electioneering purposes.

We tell Pool, and Abbott, and their strikers that the days of Littlefield & Co., are over in this State. The money of which they boast will not be sufficient to purchase enough votes to turn the political scales in North Carolina. The current against Radicalism is too strong to bestemmed by Radical greenbacks. The people will not sell their principles for base lucre. They will not be bulldozed into voting the Radical ticket. It is true they are poor as a class, but they are too honest and too high-minded to barter their honor and consciences for dollars and cents.

It is a sad commentary on the degeneracy of the times when men high in official position publicly boast of the amount of money they have on hand to carry an election!

What would have been thought of such a statement before the war?

The order has gone forth from Washington city that North Carolina must be carried at all hazards for Caldwell. Such a result would be heralded all over the North as a great triumph for Grant and as the first gun in the Presidential campaign of 1872.

North Carolinians, we call upon you all to resent the insult which Pool and Abbott would fasten upon you by the imputation that you are ready to sell yourselves for money!

We know that you will spurn the gold they will offer as a bribe for your embrace of Radicalism.

Show to them there is honor enough left among you to despise the gifts stained with corruption and political crime which they would give you in exchange for your principles. Those gifts, though fair and tempting to the eye, will turn to dust and ashes on the lip.

You should despise men who would attempt to purchase and degrade you—for they are vile, corrupt debased creatures themselves, who deserve only the scorn, contempt and execration of every honorable man.

THE FREEDMEN'S BUREAU.

For about the 20th time, this infamous sink-hole of corruption has been announced as abolished.

The latest edition of these notices is, that it was finally abolished on Sunday last, and all its dirty effects turned over to the War Department for final settlement. If this be true, then we may be sure that the last bottom-dollar of rascality has dropped out, and that the hopocritical and canting General Oh! Oh! Howard, who has made his millions out of the false sympathy of the North for the "poor negro"—is no longer able to see in this rascally concern, anything more to his advantage, but now turns his attention to the "poor Indian"—the red and not the black man.

REGISTRARS AND REGISTRATION.

It is the duty of the Commissioners in the several Counties to appoint the Registrars in the different Townships. We ask our political friends to see to this matter of such great importance in the result of the election on the 1st day of August next. What sort of men have the Radicals appointed? Are they not all Radical Registrars? Registration begins this day. Let every voter see that his name is on the list—and every one who has never voted before in the Township where he now resides, have his name duly registered in time. This is an all-important matter.

THE GOVERNMENT OF KIRK—DENUNCIATION OF DOCTOR ROBERTS FOR THE SENATE.

The Radical Senatorial District composed of the counties of Buncombe and Madison have recently nominated one Dr. Marion Roberts, as their candidate.

This Dr. Roberts belonged to Kirk's staff during both wars—first, the war of the Confederacy, and secondly Holden's war upon the people of North Carolina. Roberts was Kirk's surgeon and medical adviser during the latter's whole military career, and is the bosom friend of that incarnate fiend and cut-throat.

We hear that a number of moderate men among the Radicals in Roberts' Senatorial District will not support Kirk's M. D.—but will do all they can to defeat him.

His nomination, however, is significant, in that it shows the animus of the Radical party in Western North Carolina.

THAT INFAMOUS CIRCULAR.

We alluded yesterday to a scandalous anonymous circular that was being circulated among the people, maligning the character of some of the best and purest men in the State. Several of our candidates on the State ticket are stigmatized as murderers, thieves and assassins. This document is distributed under the frank of "JOHN POOL, U. S. S."

The authors of this vile and libelous production, as well as those who aid in its circulation, subject themselves to legal prosecution by those whom they have so wickedly and outrageously assailed.

We repeat our warning to the people to be on their guard against this mendacious and scurrilous production.

It is as false as political malice can make it.

We call upon our speakers and candidates, everywhere, to denounce it in proper terms.

OUR INDIGENT ORPHANS.

We publish this morning a communication seconding the suggestions of the Biblical Recorder and DAILY NEWS in regard to establishing a benevolent Asylum for the orphan children of North Carolina.

Since the suggestion of St. John's College at Oxford as the proper building for the Asylum, the Trustees of that Institution have held a meeting, and kindly offered it for that purpose to the Legislature of the State.

We think it would be well if an organization of some of the leading and influential citizens of the State could be effected for the purpose of giving "aid and comfort" to the movement.

It is an enterprise that appeals eloquently and irresistibly to every patriotic heart; and we hope to see some steps taken by individuals as well as communities to give shape and direction to the proposition.

[Correspondence of the Daily News.]

Our Indigent Orphans.

Dear News:

An editorial in your last Weekly issue, headed "Our Indigent Orphans," has induced me to express myself upon the subject; which expression I have been for some time desiring to make, and, by way of endorsing the sentiments of the editorial in question, which I infer were corroborative of others brought forth in the Biblical Recorder, I request a short space in your influential and conservative paper.

I have, it is true, been waiting for an opportune time, when such sentiments might more aptly claim their own, unsupplanted by the high excitement of political events, and while I am well aware that time has by no means quite arrived, still I cannot longer forbear, seeing that others have touched upon the string which should vibrate effectually in every North Carolina ear.

The position which our State has heretofore taken in the matter of benevolent institutions would, it seems, guarantee to these orphans referred to, a situation beyond the baleful empire of utter destitution.

Up to the time of the war, North Carolina was held as an example of princely honor and motherly kindness in the manner in which she conducted herself in behalf of her distressed and unfortunate children. The protective hand was faithfully extended to those whom an Allwise God had denied or bereft of sight, and she led them into an ample home and cared for them tenderly. Those to whom the thunders were silent, and the strings of whose tongues were unloosed, she took up in her arms, and in her bosom provided a refuge, from ignorance and its attendants. All these she protected and educated, and at this day they bless her name. There is another class of unfortunates to whom she extended her wise and motherly consideration: those who were deprived of reason, either by nature or circumstances, who were unable to receive a fit asylum otherwise. In all these acts of beneficence, our State exhibited a spirit truly generous and noble.

And now there is another class—a class of desolate children, who are standing with uncovered heads, under the snow clouds of the of the world's indifference and pride, and frequently disdain. The mad reaper, who ever reigns over the sensitive carnivals of war, has cut down thousands of the princely yeomen of the State, who gave their lives—ah! sublime, yet unavailing oblation—willingly and eagerly that they might shield their children in the coming years from sectional arrogance and scorn and self-national-importance.

These men are now on the "Eternal camping ground" of fame, and we place garlands of flowers and make pathetic and eloquent speeches over their graves; but their children are destitute, weeping for food and for clothes; weeping for the sweet smiles of their lost ones; weeping for shelter from poverty's thunder-bolts and storms.

The children of such men as Pettigrew and Branch and others of like official elevation, who died great as they died gloriously, at the head of our armies, are in no danger. They have the patronage begotten by their fathers' greatness. But there were other men, who died equally brave as they died gloriously, men who died in the army, who fought hard and who died hard, and who now sleep in unmarked graves. Their children, upon whom we might build our loftiest monument to memory and honor of their fallen sires, are poverty stricken, ignorance-stricken and sin-stricken, because they have cried in vain for the protection of those for whom their fathers shattered the golden bowl, and loosened the silver chords of their lives.

The orphans' mute appeal to the heart of christian humanity, is at all times impressive, and if so, should not these earnest, loud appeals for the poor dear children of our dead heroes be imperative—absolutely and positively imperative?

We cannot, we will not expect our grand old State to forever allow these mocking winds to wail over the bald heads of her children. She will wake at length; some one will wake her, but it must be done sir, through the press primarily. Really I do not wish to pay a compliment, and I affirm that no paper could more fitly become their organ than the NEWS.

Respectfully,
PHILOLOGUS.

STRANGE BUT TRUE.

STATE MATTERS.

☞ Our friends throughout the State will place us under obligations if they will furnish us with any items of news that may transpire in their respective sections, as we desire to make this department specially full.

MAYOR WILSON has not yet returned to Wilmington.

M. LONDON, Esq., has been appointed city attorney of Wilmington.

GOV. VANCE will address the people of Bladen at Whiteville on the 6th inst.

TWENTY-ONE marriage licenses were issued in New Hanover county during the month of June.

A COTTON bloom has been received in Petersburg, Va., by Messrs. Jarratt & Son, from Bertie county, this State.

THE Bar of New Hanover county passed appropriate resolutions on the death of Col. John A. Richardson.

THE law office of Messrs. J. S. & D. J. Devane, of Wilmington, was robbed of a few articles last Saturday night.

THERE will be an excursion from Wilmington, on the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford rail road to day.

A NUMBER of the Republicans of New Hanover county opposed to the action of the Convention held recently at Rocky Point, have called a mass meeting to be held in Wilmington, on the 9th inst.

ROBERT E. CUTCHINS, a youth, of Currituck county, was killed by lightning during a recent thunder storm, and his brother, who was up a tree, was thrown down and badly stunned by the same stroke.

THE Star says during the month of June 9,332 barrels of rosin, 236 barrels of tar, 200 barrels of spirits of turpentine and 15 barrels of pitch were shipped from Wilmington over the Wilmington and Weldon rail road.

THE Democrats and conservative of the Senatorial District composed of the counties of Brunswick and Bladen have nominated Kinchen K. Council, of Bladen as their candidate for the Senate, in place of Col. John A. Taylor, who declined the nomination.

The Future Lady of the White House.

In view of the possibility of her becoming next year "the lady of the White House," the New York Herald gives the following sketch of Miss Ida Greeley, daughter of the sage of Chappaqua:

"Miss Greeley's mother has for many years been an invalid, and is now so unwell that Mr. Greeley hesitates about removing her from the St. Cloud Hotel, where she is staying in this city, to the homestead at Chappaqua, and in the event of his election, the most arduous duties of hostess of the Executive Mansion would devolve upon his eldest daughter. Miss Ida Greeley is a young lady of about eighteen, of medium height, handsome, with the soft, dark eye, shapely features, dark brown hair done up in becoming folds about her head. Her manners are affable and cordial, her conversation ready and sprightly, and from the success with which, assisted by Mrs. Stuart, she presided at the first State dinner of the coming Administration under the evergreen shades on the farm at Chappaqua, Saturday, it was made evident that her domestic accomplishments are thorough. She may be epigrammatically described as the philosopher refined out of his angularities and eccentricities and feminized. She heard of her father's nomination first in London, Mr. Smalley, of the Tribune having telegraphed her mother at once on receiving notice of it, and, as she admits naively, 'was glad to hear it.' She endorses his proposed nomination at the Baltimore Convention, and, in the event of it, believes he will be elected. She does not advocate woman suffrage, but if she could vote would vote for Mr. Greeley, which she thinks the woman suffragists as a party would not be likely to do."

From the Hartford Times.

Letter from Horace Greely—His Position in Regard to the Democrats.

The following is an extract from a private letter to a gentleman in this State. Though it was never intended for publication, the gentleman to whom it was addressed has deemed it of sufficient interest and importance to justify its publication:

NEW YORK, June 11, 1872.

* * * I have no possible claim to Democratic support, and never made any. The Democrats will of course be governed by a consideration of their own interest. It is nowise proper or probable that they should be influenced in making their decision by any consideration personal to myself; and if they could be, I do not desire it. Hence I have said nothing to any Democrat, unless he first addressed me. And, even then, I have gone no further than to say that, is I should be elected, I would treat all those who supported me alike, not asking whether they had been, in the past, Republicans or Democrats.

* * * Yours,
HORACE GREELEY.

Misses Lula Hansome, of Baltimore, Lucy Smith, of Fort Dodge, Iowa, and Mrs. Mark Ripley, of Janesville, were drowned at Milwaukee, Wis., on Saturday night last.

A resolution not to employ any person on the police force who is addicted to the use of intoxcating liquor has been passed by the City Council of Petersburg, Va.

A number of negroes passed through Petersburg on Monday on their way from Lynchburg to New York, where they propose to secure employment as domestics.

The horse that General Lee rode at the battle of Gettysburg is now owned by a lady of Fairfax county, Va., she having purchased him in Washington City since the death of General Lee.

Two white boys and one colored were found dead on Sunday on the Bay on St. John, Louisiana, and it is supposed that they were killed by lightning.

A man whose name is supposed to be Benthal died in St. Vincent Hospital, Norfolk, Va., on Saturday.

Murdered at Sea.

Alexander Tolman, or Tallman, according to a letter received Friday by the city marshal of Springfield, has been murdered on shipboard. His father was a blacksmith in Springfield at one time, and Alexander, who had served a term in the army, left home rather suddenly, at what date does not appear, and went to New York. While there, he was "shanghæd," or shipped while intoxicated, on board the ship Charles Marshall. He arrived in Liverpool in due course of time, but in a destitute condition. On the 22d of February he sailed in the Arlington, and, according to the statements made by the crew, was brutally treated and finally murdered by the mate, one Henry Arnott Scott. The cruelty began after the pilot left the ship, which was on the 24th or 25th, Tolman being beaten with chain hooks, marlinspikes and other missiles. He was turned on the coals void of clothing and covered with vermin, where he was kept all day and night without food. This was on the 22d of February. He was then called up to aid in trimming sail, but was too weak and emaciated to do duty, and cried out, "For God's sake don't murder me, I am willing to do all I can." The mate knocked him down with a marlin-spike and jumped upon his chest, causing his death in a few minutes, although many of the crew believe that his end was hastened by a blow on the back of the head from a billet of wood in the hands of the captain, the previous night, which they think must have fractured the skull. The ship was run into Fayal, April 10, and the case reported to the British vice-consul. A naval court was convened, who returned in the case of the captain the endorsement, "not proven." The mate was, however, sent to Liverpool for trial in irons.—Exchange.

A terrible affair is reported from Washington city. A German named Julius Ende and his wife, Julia, both attempted suicide. They first tried laudanum, but, having taken an overdose, vomiting ensued, and the drug failed in effect. They then resorted to the knife, and endeavored to sever the arteries in their arms and legs. Both of the parties were found nearly lifeless and severely wounded on Thursday about 12 P. M., by the city police.

It is stated that the State of Texas would contain the entire population of the United States without making it any more thickly settled than Massachusetts, and would hold the entire population of the French Empire (or republic that now is) and leave uninhabited a margin of sixty miles around the boundary of the State.

The sum of $75 000 of the floating debt of Camden, N. J., is again to be funded the present year. This is the full extent allowed by the charter in any one year. Last year the same amount was funded.

The boiler of the Lafayette Iron Works, at Titusville, Pa., exploded Saturday, injuring three men, one severely and badly shattering the building.—The explosion was caused by a lack of water.

Seven loaded oil cars caught fire from a passing engine, Saturday, near Palmyra, N. Y., and were consumed. Both tracks of the railroad for some distance were destroyed. The loss is heavy.

The rite of Baptisms was administered to five persons at High Street M. E. Church, Petersburg, Va., on Sunday night.

Six hundred thousand barrels of petroleum oil were sold at Pitusville, Pa., on the 29th of June, involving $2,000,000.

A lady in Indiana has been granted a divorce on the plea that her husband had refused to assist her on washing days.

In New York, Sunday, the themometer ranged from 94 to 100 degrees in the street. There were several cases of sunstroke.

The Southern Dental Association will meet in Richmond, Va., on the last Tuesday in July.

Another Greeley club has been organized in Richmond, Va.

SPECIAL FEATURES AND ADVANTAGES.

1st. No restriction on Residence or Travel.

2d. No extra charge on lives of Females.

3d. Policies incontestable after Five Years

4th. The rates of Interest on the Funds of the Company are higher than those on the Funds of Companies located in other States, thus insuring larger Dividends to Policy Holders.

5th. The Directors and Officers of the Company are prominent NORTH CAROLINIANS, who are KNOWN to be men of INTEGRITY and WORTH.

6th. The Company is established on a solid and permanent basis, steps having been taken to increase the Capital Stock to $500,000.

7th, ALL THE FUNDS OF THE COMPANY ARE INVESTED IN THIS STATE AND CIRCULATED AMONG OUR OWN PEOPLE. This fact should commend the Company, above all others, to North Carolinians. It is well known that hundreds of thousands of Dollars in Life Premenms are annually sent North to enrich Northern Capitalists, thus continually draining our people of immense amounts which should be kept at home. On this ground the friends of this Company confidently appeal to every son of the Old North State, and ask their support for this HOME INSTITUTION, which, while it offers substantially all the advantages of Northern Companies, helps to build up HOME INTERESTS.

THURSDAY.....JULY 4, 1872.

ALONE.

BY ABBY SAGE RICHARDSON

White roses fill the room with perfume sweet;
Tall waxen candles, burn at head and feet;
Close swathed in grave-clothes, cold and still she lies.
The white lids folded o'er her tender eyes,
She breathes not. Love is dead.

On either side the bier her sisters stand,
Each holding fast a dead, unanswering hand,
"Wake, Sweet!" Hope pleads, through tears like falling rain.
"She will rouse soon!" Faith whispers. All in vain—
My heart knows, She is dead.
The night hours pass, heavy with weight of woe,
We count, by dropping tears, the minutes slow;
Till Faith, despairing, cries: "I must away.
Since Love is dead, I can no longer stay.
Farewell," And Faith has flown.

Next Hope glides noiseless through the dusky room,
Her garments' white turned ashen in the gloom.
"Not thou, sweet Hope. Stay, though the rest be fled!"
"Alas!" she sighs, "I die, when Love lies dead.
Dwell with thy heart alone."

WATSON'S & CLARK'S
HIGH GRADE
Super-Phosphate of Lime.
Composed entirely of the Charleston Rock Phosphate, Sulphuric Acid and Ammonia. Warranted to analyse seven per cent. of Soluble Phosphoric Acid and one per cent. of Ammonia.
We are prepared to offer this reliable and superior Super-phosphate—after a test of more than five years in the cotton growing States of South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama, where its record is second to no other manufactured—not excepting Peruvian Guano and Pure Ground Bone—having a better record for cotton than those sold to Planters and Dealers—in any quantities, at any railroad depot in the State, or at the factory, upon satisfactory terms.
Price per ton, delivered at any station on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad east of Henderson, or on the Wilmington and Weldon road north of Rocky Mount, for cash.
Put up in bags—very stout—for immediate use—or in good barrels—which we recommend as better, owing to the high grade of the article as ordered. Circular and testimonials furnished upon application, and orders and communications addressed to

General and Sole Agents for the State of North Carolina and the lower counties of Virginia.
